Behind the Scenes at 416 Chartres Street

NAIOP Gulf Coast, alongside Ryan Gootee General Contractors, LLC, had an exclusive tour of The Historic New Orleans Collection's 416 Chartres Street property. This rare opportunity allowed guests to step inside one of the French Quarter's most iconic landmarks and see its remarkable transformation firsthand. Blending history, architecture, and community impact, the tour highlighted how preservation and modern vision can come together to breathe new life into a treasured space.

The State of Capital with First Horizon Bank

NAIOP Gulf Coast and First Horizon Bank came together for The State of Capital—an evening of connection, insight, and discussion on the forces shaping today's capital markets and commercial real estate landscape. Moderator Riley Kennedy of Woodward Design + Build and panelists Tony Adams of First Horizon Bank, John Woodard of Stirling, and Peter Ricchiuti of Tulane University's Freeman School of Business gave perspectives that sparked meaningful dialogue on market shifts, opportunities, and challenges ahead.
